Reînnoirea Bisericii Unitariene după Edictul toleranţei

Abstract:

This work proposes to present Unitarian C Abstract hurch from Transylvania after Joseph's Edict of tolerance. The first two decades following the edict were characterised by an ample project of renovation and construction of new churches. Authors of the study focused mainly on localities that lost their cult buildings after the Leopold's Diploma. The work enumerates ways of confiscating churches from the following localities: Cluj, Turda, Abrud, Troiţa, Cornești, Cristuru Secuiesc and Valea Crișului, as well as describes construction of the new cult buildings, extensive renovations, erection of new towers etc.
