With and about Florin Draşovean

Author FLORIN GOGÂLTAN
Institute of Archaeology and Art History Cluj-Napoca/West University of Timișoara, Romania , floringogaltan@gmail.com

Abstract:

This is not a laudatio. Benefiting from the understanding of the editors of the present volume, I set out to write a few thoughts – both the good and the bad – about Professor Florin Drașovean as I have known him throughout the 35 years since we first met. We were close, then we grew apart, came close again and grew apart yet again, sailing on the troubled professional and spiritual waters that brought us here. Those aware of the ups and the more notorious downs of our relationship may wonder why I wanted to write this. The answer is simple: because there is a story to tell.

Keywords: Florin Draşovean, Neolithic